

We Must Learn To Live Together

T Wallis (1981)

The musical score is written in G major (one sharp) and 4/4 time. It consists of seven staves of music. The lyrics are: "It doesn't matter any more what the cause is that we're fighting for, cause if the fighting turns to war, then the cause is dust, like the rest of us. CH: We must learn to live together with our differences without instances of hate, before - - - it's too late. We must learn to live together with our differences without instances of hate, before - - - it's too late." The score includes guitar chords (G, D, Em, C, G/F#) and a vocal line with lyrics. The piece ends with a double bar line.

2. The greatest principles on earth
 Cannot hope to match
 What human life is worth
 Cause every person from their birth
 Is representative of the right to live

3. There will be Christian, there will be Jew
 There will be countless claims to know what's true
 There will be those with Marxist view
 All the great divides have their opposing sides

4. With a handshake or a gun
 Do we settle our scores or the damage done
 If we can't learn to live as one
 All will soon be lost in a holocaust.
